Dear Milton:

I was most appreciative of your note of 7 August thanking me for the help our people were able to give in connection with your recent fact finding mission. Under the circumstances, it was, I realize, a difficult and delicate task and you certainly carried it through in a manner to do lasting good for our country. When you are next in Washington, I would certainly welcome the opportunity of sitting down and having a good talk with you about your trip. In particular, I would be interested in any ideas or suggestions you might have by which we might be able to increase the assistance we could render to missions such as yours, and also to get your thoughts as to how we could increase our overall efficiency.

I have passed on to those concerned your expression of appreciation and everyone was most gratified by your thoughtfulness.

Once again, my thanks and best wishes.

Faithfully,

Signed
